

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the [Position X] at [Company X]. My diverse background and proven track record in software engineering make me a prime candidate for this role.

Throughout my career, I have consistently emphasized value creation, leading to significant advancements and transformative impacts in every organization I've been part of. At Lufthansa Group, I was instrumental in developing tools that not only enhanced operational efficiency but also increased market competitiveness, opening new business opportunities. My roles at SeeMe and Introhm further highlighted my commitment to leveraging cutting-edge technology to create products that meet immediate user needs and push the boundaries in their respective industries. My work has been recognized and endorsed by industry leaders, including Microsoft, a testament to the tangible impact of my contributions.

Having been raised in various countries, my journey towards the American Dream is intertwined with my ambition to use technology to forge a better future. This international experience has enriched my passion for innovation and equipped me with a global perspective in problem-solving. I ensure that the solutions I develop are not only technically sound but also cater to the diverse needs of users globally.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring this value-driven approach to [Company X]. I am confident that together, we can achieve innovative and impactful results that will further enhance [Company X]'s position in the industry. I am eager to contribute to your team and look forward to the possibility of working together.

Thank you for considering my application. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to the continued success of [Company X].

Warm regards,
Jannis Grimm
